OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

TUESDAY MORNING APRIL 21 1863

Patrick Henry and the new Expounders of the Constitution.

One of the greatest and best men of the Revolution—the immortal Patrick Henry—was a very stupid person if the arguments of some of our modern democrats are worthy of consideration. In a great speech, delivered June 24th, 1788, he declared that the Constitution of the United States, soon after adopted, gave to Congress the right to emancipate and free the slaves under the war power.

His opinions, then expressed, have new interest now, we therefore quote what he said and commend it to the attention of our readers:

If you give power to the General Government to provide for the general defence, the means must be commensurate to the end. All the means in the possession of the people must be given to the Government which is entrusted with the public defence. In this State, there are two hundred and thirty six thousand blacks, and there are many in several other States, but there are few or none in the Northern States, and yet if the Northern States shall be of the opinion that our numbers are numberless, they may call forth every national resource. May not Congress say that every black man must fight? Did we not see a little of this in the last war? We were not so hard pushed as to make emancipation general, but acts of Assembly passed that every slave who would go to the army should be free. Another thing will contribute to bring this event about, slavery is detested, we feel its real effects, we deplore it with all the pity of humanity. Let all these considerations at some future period press with full force on the minds of Congress. Let that urbanity which I trust will distinguish America, and the necessity of national defence—let all these things operate on their minds, and they will search that paper, and see if they have the powers of manumission. And have they not, sir? Have they not power to provide for the general defence and welfare? May they not think that these call for the abolition of slavery? May they not pronounce all slaves free, and will they not be warranted by that power? There is no ambiguous implication or logical deduction. The paper speaks to the point. They have the power in clear unequivocal terms, and they will clearly and certainly exercise it.

Will patriotic and honest citizens of to-day believe this noble hero of the early days of the Republic, or shall they adopt the opinions of the copperhead faction?

"THE PLAGUE OF ONE'S LIFE.—After all, we republicans are not the only people plagued by impudent servants. The vexations of servant girl-ism seem to be quite as much a subject of complaint in aristocratic England and imperial France as in democratic America. Indeed, if we may judge from the following incident related by the Paris correspondent of the New York Evening Post, the theory of servants' rights and the practical action of them, have reached the highest condition in France, where we might have supposed "they order these things better":

A girl named Marie Geneur was arrested on a charge of robbing her mistress, and the latter testified that within the last six months she had successively discharged four servants for misconduct, and could not imagine how girls who had been sent to her from the country with good characters, should in a week or two have contracted all the worst habits of Parisian servants, until she at last ascertained that they had all been corrupted by a servant in the employ of a family residing in the same house. It appears that this mischievous person took upon herself to instruct all novices in service, and had even drawn up a set of rules for their guidance, a copy of which was found in the possession of the prisoner. It ran as follows:

Every servant girl who has any self respect ought: 1. To insist on going to market unaccompanied by her mistress. 2. To refuse to debase herself by washing or dry scrubbing. 3. To allow of no meddling with her private affairs or dress. 4. To receive whom soever she pleases in the kitchen. 5. Not to allow her letters to be read. 6. To wear crinoline, a long shawl and a bonnet. 7. To demand an increase of wages every three months, never to give a week's notice, but to insist on the same from her employer. 8. To take a fortnight's holiday twice a year to visit her relatives. 9. To leave any family if she does not receive a present after two months' service.

A BORDER STATE UNION MAN.—We make the following extract from a speech delivered by Governor Andy Johnson of Tennessee at the republican meeting at Indianapolis on Thursday evening last:

He (Johnson) had spent his life in the South, picked cotton with his own hands, owned slaves, obtained through his own industry, and had them appropriated by these fellows, his family turned into the street, and his house converted into barracks as his portion of Southern rights; and although he did not approve of the policy of employing negroes in the army, yet he was for the Constitution, with or without slavery. If the negro gets in the way of the car of State, let him be crushed; if not, let him remain where he is. Slavery, as compared with the government, is dust in the balance, and as for cotton, the world existed nearly six thousand years without its being an article of prime necessity, and if a little more wool, flax and hemp is grown, the world will scarcely feel its loss.—The government will go on; whether we have negroes or cotton. Stand firm for this great fabric of human liberty.

A New Hampshire captain says he has in his company forty five men, nine tenths of whom voted the democratic ticket, when at home. So intense is their opposition to the recent movements of some of the leading democrats, that the privates would about as soon shoot a "peace" democrat as a rebel.

By Overland Telegraph.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to April 14th!

NEW YORK April 13.—The steamer Ice body, Capt Atwell with dates from Key West to the 9th inst reports that at Hilton Head on the 8th, she saw the monitor Weehawken repairing. She had a hole in the chimney and reported that she had been fired at by the rebels at Charleston harbor but was not seriously injured. Some of the rivets had been started from the turret which prevented her guns from working to advantage. She was with no aid from Fort Sumter in the action. She received one shot at the junction of the turret with the deck, preventing the turret from revolving, and rendering her useless for the time.

The Ironsides received 50 shots and sustained no damage further than starting a few bolts. The rest of the fleet were uninjured. They hauled off, the reconnoissance being accomplished which was to ascertain the locality of the obstructions.

Our entire loss was two killed and thirteen wounded.

The following dispatches have been received. Morehead City N C via Fortress Monroe, April 12.—Passed through the fleet off Charleston Thursday 9th at one o'clock A M. The monitors were ranged along the beach off Cumming's Point—all in good order. As regards further movements reports were conflicting. It was positively stated by the pilot who boarded us that the monitors had withdrawn over the bar and that further action for the present was suspended. An officer of the James Adger, who boarded us said that the engagement would be renewed about the 16th, and that the Admiral expressed his belief in our success. We left the fleet at noon and when about 20 miles off heavy firing was heard. As the steamer left some ironclads were going to blow up the Keokuk.

WASHINGTON, April 12th.—The steamer Flambeau arrived with dispatches other than official sources. It is ascertained that the vessels comprising the fleet advanced upon Charleston in the following order. The Weehawken, Passaic, Patapsco and Ironsides, the flagship with Admiral Dupont and staff on board next, followed by the Nantucket, Montauk, Nahant and Keokuk. In this order they proceeded up the main channel arriving within about 1,700 yards of the main forts. The Ironsides became unmanageable, owing to the tide and the narrowness of the channel, she was therefore obliged to drop anchor to prevent drifting ashore. Owing to these circumstances it was signalled that the Ironsides could not control her actions, and the remainder of the squadron continued their course and soon came within range of the rebel batteries from all points. Obstructions in the channel from Fort Sumter to Fort Moultrie interfered with the progress of our ships, in consequence of this and the position of the Ironsides and the space for manoeuvering being only from 500 to 3 000 yards wide, the vessels were obliged to prepare at once to engage the forts and adjacent batteries. A signal had been made for action at half past three o'clock P M by the Ironsides, but the rebels had previously opened fire on the leading vessels.

The combat is represented as having been in the highest degree exciting presenting a fearful scene—fire belching from all points of land and water, there being a continuous roar of cannon. In the course of 30 or 40 minutes the Keokuk being in a sinking condition was obliged to withdraw from the fight and seek anchorage below the range of the enemy's guns. A few minutes afterwards all the vessels withdrew, at a signal from the flag ship, it being deemed impracticable to continue hostilities further. The Keokuk was within 500 or 600 yards of Fort Sumter and was completely riddled. She was struck from all the batteries within range at least 90 times within 30 minutes. The shot were from rifled cannon of the heaviest calibre. Capt Rhind her commander, received a contusion on the leg and was slightly lamed. Twelve men were wounded, together with acting Ensign McIntosh who had charge of one of the guns. His injuries are supposed to be mortal. Next morning, finding it impossible to save the vessel, Capt Rhind called a tug which took all his men on board, and in a few minutes thereafter the Keokuk sunk. The persons belonging to the ship lost all their private effects. On Wednesday the squadron remained at anchor in the channel.

It is said that the number of men in our fleet is only 1,100 with 30 guns, while the enemy has at least 300 guns, said to be the best in the world. The injuries to our vessels excluding the Keokuk are reported to be of such a character as will require but a short time for repairs. The casualties among our men are remarkably few including one killed and three wounded on the Nahant. None of the batteries fired upon our vessels until they had reached the vicinity of the main forts.

The Times says our ships were exposed to a concentrated fire from four different points. It was unparalleled in history of warfare. During the night not less than 2,500 shots were fired.

The Herald correspondent says that a rumor was in circulation at Port Royal that our troops were rapidly gaining the rear of the city of Charleston.

The Tribune says the result of the reconnoissance of Charleston shows the utter insufficiency of the iron clad fleet to take that place.

NEW YORK April 14th.—The Tribune says Admiral Dupont intended to renew the attack next day, but finding that the Keokuk and Perna were entirely disabled and three others partially so concluded to desist in which resolution he was seconded by all the commanders.

There were eleven large holes in the side of Fort Sumpter, apparently going through the walls. Our entire firing only amounted to 150 rounds. When our correspondent left two monitors had sailed for Port Royal and others were to follow.

The rebels still fired occasionally on the small birds etc and seldom attacks man—it is clownish clumsy in its motions, and a very slight blow suffices to kill it. It is also called the wood pecker.

It cannot be denied that the analogy between this loathsome creature and the mean sneaking politicians who are now distracting the Northern mind with cries of peace is quite striking. Like this copperhead the peace party are venomous in their attacks on the nation—like it their head is undoubtedly thick like it, their neck and reach are contracted. Their scales are smooth, and they have no rattles to warn the honest traveler of the ruin in ambush. Like the copperhead their character is stained by dark deeds and like it they prefer dark places to the light of day. Like that sneaking reptile their prey is small feeble creatures and they seldom venture to take a man. If we add to all of our political copperheads the other reptile type we are struck with the fact that they deserve the all to appropriate nomination of dunkheads and deserters and that a very slight blow make an end of them we shall have made the analogy complete. It is preferable to the less romantic four letter full word, as it at once quickly reduces the resemblance between the copperhead snake and the peace politician and baptized them by one common appellation.

We shall not waste time in arguing with the copperheads. Men who are capable of justifying the rebels and espousing their cause when the blood of some members of almost every Northern family reddens Southern soil and the bones of Northern soldiers are worn as ornaments by Southern women are not likely to be convinced by argument or to be persuaded to anything short of a bayonet thrust.

But one suggestion we will make. If Mr Vallandigham or any of his fellow copperheads will visit any large camp of loyal troops either in the East or in the West or in the South and will in the presence of the soldiers express the sentiments they have uttered at Newark New York and elsewhere and if with all the protection of the Generals and Provost Marshals who they so heartily abuse they succeed after delivering their speech, in making their escape alive and with unmutilated ears and feathers we shall agree that copperheads may fairly be tolerated. Our soldiers are anxious to have the challenge accepted.—Harper's Weekly.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City

PROF MYERS AGAIN.—Professor Myers failed to leave town yesterday morning for the Dalles, as was anticipated, owing the vigilance of our efficient City Marshal who politely informed the Professor that he must pay the license tax before he left, which he had neglected to do previously. After finding that he couldn't trick the Marshal he reluctantly "shelled out," and obtained permission to proceed on his journey—provided some more of his creditors don't go and do likewise. Professor Myers can play some pretty sharp tricks on his show, but he is a bill poster in paying up his debts—especially the Printer's bills. His has an inordinate habit of "backing at the tiger," too which looks bad for a man with a family, especially when he can't win.

ARMY TRANSPORTATION CONTRACT.—We learn that bids for the transportation of army freight from Vancouver to the various military posts east of the Cascade mountains were opened yesterday at the office of Capt. Hopkins, A. A. Q. M., and those made by the Oregon Steam Navigation Company were found to be lower than those of the People's line, we presume, therefore, that the former will have the privilege of carrying the Government stores, ammunition, &c. for the next year; the compensation for the service at the bids accepted will probably be about twenty thousand dollars.

EFFECTS OF OPPOSITION.—The O. S. Navigation Company announce that they have reduced the price of passage from this city to the Dalles to one dollar and we are credably informed that a still further reduction will probably be made in a few days. This is decidedly cheap fair, and a favorable opportunity is offered to all "hard up" cases to leave town. When the passage gets down to nothing, with plenty of whisky and a new suit of clothes thrown in, we shall probably take a trip in that direction ourselves.

SENT TO JAIL.—The Indian who rushed at a white man with an axe drawn, on Friday last, was arrested by Marshal Clark yesterday and taken before Recorder McCoy who committed him to the city jail for ten days. This is ample time for an Indian to meditate in, and we hope that when his time is out he will be willing to return to his Reservation and remain there.

DALLES AND CELILO RAILROAD.—We learn from the Dalles Journal that the passenger cars of the Dalles and Celilo railroad were to run from the depot of the O. S. N. Company yesterday morning at nine o'clock, for Celilo, there to connect with the steamer Tenino, for Wallula, Lewiston, and all intermediate points, for the first time.

COMPLAINTS.—Numerous complaints have lately reached us from our subscribers at Olympia and Victoria, that they could not obtain their papers regularly. We are unable, as yet, to discover where the fault lies.—Le Journal's Letter.

In justice to the subscribers of that paper we publish the following letter recently received from a gentleman in that direction, who, it seems, is troubled in a different way:

, April 14th, 1863

EDITOR OREGONIAN

SIR:—You will confer a favor by writing the name of your paper (Oregonian) upon the wrapper, so that I will be able to tell it from the Times. I have ordered the Times discontinued, but it keeps coming. The object of my request is, I presume, plain to you.

Respectfully,

"That's what's the matter!"

Gen. John A. Logan, formerly Democratic Representative in Congress from Egypt has issued an address to his soldiers in which he says:

Intriguing political tricksters, demagogues and time servers, whose corrupt deeds are but a faint reflex of their more corrupt hearts, seem determined to drive our people on to anarchy and destruction. They have hoped by magnifying the reverses of our arms, basely misrepresenting the conduct of our soldiers and boldly denouncing the acts of the constituted authorities of the Government as unconstitutional and usurpatious, to produce general demoralization in the army, and thereby reap their political reward, weaken the cause we have espoused, and aid those arch traitors of the South to dismember our mighty republic and trail in the dust the emblem of our national unity, greatness and glory. Let me remind you, my countrymen, that we are soldiers of the Federal Union armed for the preservation of the Federal Constitution and the maintenance of its laws and authority. Upon your faithfulness and devotion, heroism and gallantry depend its perpetuity. We are soldiers of a government that has always blessed us with prosperity and happiness * * * The day is not far distant when traitors and cowards North and South will cower before the indignation of an outraged people. March bravely onward! Nerve your strong arms to the task of overthrowing every obstacle in the pathway of victory until with shouts of triumph the last gun is fired that proclaims us a United People under the old Flag and one Government! Patriot soldiers! This great work accomplished, the reward for such service as yours will be realized; the blessings and honors of a grateful people will be yours.

FAMILY SEWING MACHINES

are respectfully sold for beauty, simplicity of construction, effectiveness in working, and will do

IN A PERFECT MANNER,

A greater range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money, but if you want either for your own use you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.

LADD & WEBSTER'S Sewing Machines

use a straight needle. Curved ones are liable to break.

They make a tight lock stitch alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be raveled.

Every machine is sent from our office threaded and with work under the needle ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.

Patrick Henry and the new Expounders of the Constitution.

One of the greatest and best men of the Revolution—th immortal Patrick Henry—was a very stupid person if the arguments of some of our modern democrats are worthy of c nsideration In a great speech delivered June 24th, 1788, he declared that the Constitution of the United States, soon after adopted, gave to Congress the right to emancipate and free the slaves under the war power

His opinions, then expressed, have new interest now, we therefore quote what he said and commend it to the attention of our readers

If you give power to the General Government to provide for the general defence, the means must be commensurate to the end All the means in the possession of the people must be given to the Government which is entrusted with the public defence In this State, there are two hundred and thirty six thousand blacks, and there are many in several other States, but there are few or none in the Northern States and yet if the Northern States shall be of the opinion that our numbers are numberless, they may call forth a ery national resource May not Congress say that every black man must fight? Did we not see a little of this in the last war? We were not so hard pushed as to make emancipation general; but acts of Assembly passed that every slave who would go to the army should be free Another thing will contribute to bring this event about, slavery is detested, we feel its real effects, we deplore it with all the pity of humanity. Let all these considerations at some future period press with full force on the minds of Congress Let that urbanity which I trust will distinguish America, and the necessity of national defence—let all these things operate on their minds, and they will search that paper, and see if they have the powers of manumission And have they not, sir? Have they not power to provide for the general defence and welfare! May they not think that these call for the abolition of slavery? May they not pronounce all slaves free, and will they not be warranted by that power? There is no ambiguous implication or logical deduction. The paper speaks to the point. They have the power in clear unequivocal terms, and they will clearly and certainly exercise it

Will patriotic and honest citizens of to day believe this noble hero of the early days of the Republic, or shall they adopt the opinions of the copperhead faction?

"The Plague of One's Life"—After all, we republicans are not the only people plagued by impudent servants. The vexations of servant gir-dom seem to be quite as much a subject of complaint in aristocratic England and imperial France as in democratic America. Indeed, if we may judge from the following incident related by the Paris correspondent of the New York Evening Post, the theory of servants' rights and the practical assertion of them, have reached the highest condition in France, where we might have supposed "they order these things better"

A girl named Marie Gouneur was arrested on a charge of robbing her mistress, and the latter testified that within the last six months she had successively discharged four servants for misconduct, and could not imagine how girls who had been sent to her from the country with good characters, should in a week or two have contracted all the worst habits of Parisian servants, until she at last ascertained that they had all been corrupted by a servant in the employ of a family residing in the same house. It appears that this mischievous person took upon herself to instruct all novices in service, and had even drawn up a set of rules for their guidance, a copy of which was found in the possession of the prisoner It ran as follows

Every servant girl who has any self respect ought: 1. To insist on going to market an accompanied by her mistress 2 To refuse to debase herself by washing or dry scrubbing. 3 To allow of no meddling with her private affairs or dress 4 To receive whomsoever she pleases in the kitchen 5 Not to allow her letters to be read 6 To wear crinoline, a long shawl and a bonnet 7 To demand an increase of wages every three months, never to give a week s notice, but to insist on the same from her employer 8 To take a fortnight's holiday twice a year to visit her relatives 9 To leave any family if she does not receive a present after two months service

A Border State Union Man—We make the following extract from a speech delivered by Governor Andy Johnson of Tennessee, at the republican meeting at Indianapolis on Thursday evening last

He (Johnson) had spent his life in the South, picked cotton with his own hands, owned slaves, obtained through his own industry, and had them appropriated by these fellows, his family turned into the street and his house converted into barracks as his portion of Southern rights and although he did not approve of the policy of employing negroes in the army, yet he was for the Constitution, with or without slavery If the negro gets in the way of the car of State let him be crushed; if not, let him remain where he is Slavery, as compared with the government, is dust in the balance and as for cotton, the world existed nearly six thousand years without its being an article of prime necessity, and if a little more wool, flax and hemp is grown, the world will scarcely feel its loss — The government will go on, whether we have negroes or cotton Stand firm for this great fabric of human liberty

A New Hampshire captain says he has in his company forty five men, nine tenths of whom voted the democratic ticket, when at home So intense is their opposition to the recent movements of some of the leading democrats, that the privates would about as soon shoot a "pence" democrat as a rebel

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to April 14th!

New York April 13—The steamer Peabody Capt Atwell, with dates from Key West to the 6th inst reports that at Hilton Head on the 8th, she saw the monitor Weehawken repairing She had holes in the chimney and reported that she had 19 shots fired at her by the rebels at Charleston harbor, but was not seriously injured Some of the rivets had been started from the turret which prevented her guns from working to advantage She was within 2,50 yards of Fort Sumter in the action She received one shot at the junction of the turret with the deck preventing the turret from revolving and rendering her useless for the time

The Ironsides received 9 shots and sustained no damage further than starting a few bolts The rest of the fleet were uninjured They hauled off the rebel steamer being accomplished which was to ascertain the locality of the obstructions

Our entire loss was two killed and thirteen wounded

The following dispatches have been received Morehead City N C, via Fortress Monroe April 12—Passed through the fleet off Charleston Thursday 9th at one o'clock A M The monitors were ranged along the beach off Cumming's Point—silent as the grave As regards further movements reports were conflicting It was positively stated by the pilot who boarded us that the ironsides had withdrawn over the bar and that further action for the present was suspended An officer of the James Adger, who boarded us said that the engagement would be renewed about the 16th and that the Admiral expressed his belief in our success We left the fleet about noon and when about 25 miles south heavy firing was heard As the steamer it seems ran clads were going to draw up the Keokuk

Washington, April 12th—The steamer Flambeau arrived with dispatches other than official sources It is ascertained that the vessels comprising the fleet advanced upon Charleston in the following order The Weehawken, Passaic Patapsco and Nahant, the flagship with Admiral Dupont and staff on board, next, followed by the Nantucket, Montauk, Nahant and Keokuk In this order they proceeded up the main channel arriving within about 1,700 yards of the main forts The Ironsides became unmanageable owing to the tide and the narrowness of the channel she was therefore obliged to drop an hor to prevent drifting ashore Owing to these circumstances it was signalled that the Ironsides could not control her actions, and the remainder of the squadron continued their course and soon came within range of the rebel batteries from all points Obstructions in the channel from Fort Sumter to Fort Moultrie rendered with the progress of our ships, in consequence of this and the position of the Ironsides, and the space for manouvering being only from 500 to 1 000 yards wide the vessels were obliged to prepare at once to engage the forts and adjacent batteries A signal had been made for action at half past three o'clock P M by the Ironsides, but the rebels had previously opened fire on the leading vessels

The combat is represented as having been in the highest degree exciting presenting a fearful scene—fire belching from all points of land and water, there being a continuous roar of cannon In the course of 30 or 40 minutes the Keokuk being in a sinking condition was obliged to withdraw from the fight and seek anchorage below the range of the enemy s guns A few minutes afterwards all the vessels withdrew, at a signal from the flag ship, it being deemed impracticable to continue hostilities further The Keokuk was within 500 or 600 yards of Fort Sumter and was completely riddled She was struck from all the batteries within range at least 90 times within 30 minutes The shot were from rifled cannon of the heaviest calibre Capt Rhind her commander, received a contusion on the leg and was slightly lamed Twelve men were wounded, together with acting Ensign McIntosh who had charge of one of the guns His injuries are supposed to be mortal Next morning, finding it impossible to save the vessel, Capt Rhind called a tug which took all his men on board, and in a few minutes thereafter the Keokuk sunk. The persons belonging to the ship lost all their private effects. On Wednesday the squadron remained at anchor in the channel

It is said that the number of men in our fleet is only 1,100, with 30 guns, while the enemy has at least 300 guns, said to be the best in the world The injuries to our vessels excluding the Keokuk are reported to be of such a character as will require but a short time for repairs The casualities among our men are remarkably few including one killed and three wounded on the Nahant None of the batteries fired upon our vessels until they had reached the vicinity of the main forts

Franklin, Tenn, April 12—Passengers for Nashville were captured at South Antioch on Friday afternoon, by 500 rebels Nine cars were burned, the mails and 150 passengers 90 suttlers, 20 officers and some soldiers of the 10th Michigan were captured The guard with 43 rebels in charge made a stout resistance, lost 6 killed and 12 wounded the rebels lost a like number

Louisville, April 13th—The rebels captured with the train at Antioch on Friday, a large amount of money belonging to the Government, and robbed the passengers of all they had The same party went to the Cumberland river and fired into a freight train from this city destroying the engine and mail having gone through the latter

Fortress Monroe April 12th—The steamer Spaulding from Morehead City N C yesterday, has arrived No communication had been received at Newbern from General Foster since Wednesday night The women and children were leaving Newbern

7 000 troops had reached Washington N C from Newbern They were driven back on Wednesday, eight miles with the loss of 50 men

Last accounts from General Foster say that the rebels had sent in three flags of truce for him to surrender Washington Foster's last reply was to send me more rebels if I wanted Washington is wanted, come and take it

Headquarters Army of the Potomac April 13th—A refugee who left Richmond on Tuesday says that the brutality was witnessed by him It caused the great consternation among the authorities The women heads of families and working classes were actually starving having been compelled to submit by threats Every precaution was being taken to prevent its effects reaching those who were becoming clamorous that their families should be fed

New York April 12th—The Tribune says Admiral Dupont intends to renew the attack next day, but finding that the Keokuk and Perusa were entirely disabled and three others partially so concluded to desist in which resolution he was seconded by all the commanders

There were eleven large holes in the side of Fort Sumpter, apparently going through the walls Our entire firing only amounted to 150 rounds When our correspondent left two monitors had sailed for Port Royal, and others were to follow

The Times says our ships were exposed to a concentrated fire from four different points It was unparalleled in history of warfare During the fight not less than 3,500 shots were fired

The Herald correspondent says that a rumor was in circulation at Port Royal, that our troops were rapidly gaining the rear of the city of Charleston

The Times says the result of the reconnoissance of Charleston shows the utter insufficiency of the iron clad fleet to take that place

Second Dispatch!

New York April 14—We have the following relief report Charleston April 9th—Gen Walker destroyed an armed steamer in Ossaw Bay this morning No loss on our side All quiet to-day No prospect of fighting Arrived rate from Morris Island last night The wreck of the Keokuk last night and found that the turret had been pierced by a ball

Charleston April 9—Six Monitors still lay within the bar about two miles from Sumter The enemy is preparing a new machine to remove torpedoes Everything is in readiness for an attack Accounts from Sumter reflect the highest credit on the garrison for coolness and bravery in the recent fight The enemy fired eighty shots at Sumter of which four struck

Nashville April 14th—By a flag of truce from Franklin we learn that the rebel General Crosby was wounded, also Van Dorn s aid was captured and many horses

Thirty five citizens, active and violent rebels the same who served on a vigilance committee last year, were arrested to-day by order of Gen Mitchell, and lodged in the penitentiary.

Cairo, April 14th—The rebels in the vicinity of Fort Donelson, have been for some time gathering up all the horses for cavalry service To stop this, Rosecrans has ordered all the good horses in the neighborhood to be taken up by the federal forces While on this business, Friday, our men fell in with about the same number of rebel cavalry A skirmish ensued, in which 21 rebels were taken prisoners

No news from Vicksburg

New York April 14th—The City of New York from Liverpool, April 1st, and Queenstown April 2d, has arrived The London Morning Post regards the affairs of the Confederacy as favorable at home and abroad and before a year their struggle will prove successful

It is positively stated that the Confederates intend seeking another loan abroad Palmerston in a speech at Glasgow deplored the war in America and says that the British Government would never depart from its neutrality The Confederate loan closed from ¼ to 1 cent discount

Salt Lake April 13th 8 P M—Col Evans with two companies volunteer cavalry and two infantry companies, was sent yesterday, by Gen Connor, to Spanish Fork, Nevada Territory to hustle the Indians Lieutenant Horseman with five men and a mounted howitzer was sent in advance He reached Pleasant Grove and quartered for the night in a Mormon corral 100 Indians attacked the artillery, but were repulsed, with five killed No assistance was rendered our troops by the Mormons, although they were aware of the attack More troops have been sent

San Francisco April 14th—Dispatches from New York, to-day quote gold at 128

Correspondence—Mr Clement Vallandingham in reply to Congress from Ohio made a speech recently in which he avowed himself a copperhead Certain electors nominated him like wise rejected on the title It became interesting to inquire what it means and how it came to be applied to a class of politicians A copperhead according to the American Cyclopedia is a venomous serpent—the head is thick—the neck is retracted and its scales smooth there are no rattles the tail being short—near the flanks are rounded dark blotches—it prefers dark and moist places It gives no warning of its proximity—feeds on mice small birds, etc and seldom attacks man—it is slow and clumsy in its motions, and a very slight blow suffices to kill it It is also called chunkhead and deaf adder"

It cannot be denied that the analogy between this loathsome creature and the men in smoking politicians who are now distracting the Northern mind with cries of peace is quite striking Like the pretended the peace party are "thoroughly" and their attacks on the union like it their head is undoubtedly "thick" like it their neck and reach are "contracted" Their scales too are "smooth" and they seem rattles to warn the honest traveller of their insidious approach Like these parrhead their character is stained by dark blotches and like it they prefer dark places to the light of day Like that sneaking reptile their prey is small feeble creatures and they will not venture to take human Now we ask that our political copperheads like their reptile type are slow in the extreme that they deserve the additional epithet of chunkheads and deaf adders and that a very slight blow makes an end of them we shall have made the analogy complete It is creditable to the discernment of our Western fellow citizens that they so quickly detected the resemblance between the political snake and the people put down and baptized them by one common appellation

We shall not waste time in arguing with the copperheads Men who are capable of justifying the rebels and espousing their cause when the blood of some members of almost every Northern family in less Southern soil and the homes of Northern soldiers are worn as ornaments by Southern women, are not likely to be convinced by argument or to be persuaded to anything short of a bayonet thrust

But one suggestion we will make If Mr Vallandingham or any of his fellow copperheads will visit any large camp of loyal troops either in the East or in the West or in the South and will in the presence of the soldiers express the sentiments they have uttered at Newark New York, and elsewhere, and if without the protection of the Generals and Provost Marshals whom they so heartily abuse they can get safely out of the camp, they will be entitled to the credit of being more than human

PROF MYERS AGAIN —Professor Myers failed to leave town yesterday morning for the Dalles, as was anticipated, owing the vigilance of our efficient City Marshal who politely informed the Professor that he must pay the license tax before he left, which he had neglected to do previously After finding that he could'nt trick the Marshal, he reluctantly "shelled out," and obtained permission to proceed on his journey—provided some more of his creditors don t go and do like wise. Professor Myers can play some pretty sharp tricks in his show, but he is a bad performer in paying up his debts—especially the Printer's bills His has an inordinate habit of "backing at the tiger," too which looks bad for a man with a family, especially when he can't win.

ARMY TRANSPORTATION CONTRACT —We learn that bids for the transportation of army freight from Vancouver to the various military posts east of the Cascade mountains were opened yesterday at the office of Capt Hopkins, A. A. Q. M., and those made by the Cayuse Steam Navigation Company were found to be lower than those of the People s line; we presume, therefore, that the former will have the privilege of carrying the Government stores, ammunition, &c, for the ensuing year; the compensation for the service of the bids accepted will probably be about twenty thousand dollars

RATES OF OPPOSITION —The O S Nav Co Company announce that they have reduced the price of passage from this city to the Dalles to one dollar, and we are credably informed that a still further reduction will probably be made in a few days. This is decidedly cheap fair, and a favorable opportunity is offered to all "hard up" cases to leave town. When the passage gets down to nothing, with plenty of whisky and a new suit of clothes thrown in, we shall probably take a trip in that direction ourselves.

SENT TO JAIL.—The Indian who rushed at a white man with an axe drawn, on Friday last, was arrested by Marshal Clark yesterday and taken before Recorder McCoy, who committed him to the city jail for ten days That is ample time for an Indian to meditate in, and we hope that when his time is out he will be willing to return to his Reservation and remain there

DALLES AND CELILO RAILROAD.—We learn from the Dalles Journal that the passenger train of the Dalles and Celilo railroad were to leave the depot of the O. S. N Company yesterday morning at nine o'clock, for Celilo; there to connect with the steamer Tenino, for Wallula, Lewiston, and all intermediate points, for the first time.

COMPLAINTS.—Numerous complaints have lately reached us from our subscribers at Olympia and Victoria, that they could not obtain their papers regularly. We are unable, as yet, to discover where the fault lies.—Leland's Letter.

In justice to the subscribers of that paper, we publish the following letter recently received from a gentleman in that direction, who, it seems, is troubled in a different way

, April 14th, 1863

Mr. OREGONIAN-

SIR:—You will confer a favor by writing the name of your paper (Oregonian) upon the slates, so that I will be able to tell it from the Times. I have ordered the Times discontinued, but it keeps coming. The object of my request is, I presume, plain to you

Respectfully,

"That's what's the matter."

Gen. John A. Logan, formerly Democratic Representative in Congress from Egypt, has issued an address to his soldiers in which he says:

"Intriguing political trucksters, demagogues and time-servers, whose corrupt deeds are but a base reflex of their more corrupt hearts, seem determined to drive our people on to anarchy and destruction. They have hoped, by magnifying the reverses of our arms, basely misrepresenting the conduct of our soldiers, and loudly denouncing the acts of the constituted authorities of the Government as unconstitutional and usurpations, to produce general demoralization in the army, and thereby reap their political reward, weaken the cause we have espoused, and aid those arch traitors of the South to dismember our mighty republic and trail in the dust the emblem of our national unity, greatness and glory Let me remind you, my countrymen, that we are soldiers of the Federal Union, armed for the preservation of the Federal Constitution and the enforcement of its laws and authority Upon your faithfulness and devotion, heroism and valor depend its perpetuity. We are soldiers of a government that has always blessed us with prosperity and happiness * * * The day is not far distant when traitors and cowards, North and South, will cower before the indignation of an outraged people. March bravely onward! Nerve your strong arms to the task of overthrowing every obstacle in the pathway of victory until the shouts of triumph the last gun s fired proclaims us a United People under the old flag and one Government! Patriot soldiers! This great work accomplished, the reward for such service as yours will be real fame, the blessings and honors of a grateful people will be yours

My Little Picture.

I have sent you a little picture
Of a face you used to know,
And I ask you to guard and keep it
For the sake of years ago

As a token of peace and friendship
I have sent it across the sea,
To ask if, as I have forgiven,
You too have forgiven me

Not to call up the love that is gone,
Or to bring back the sad dead past;
Or the blossoms of hope that faded
In the biting wintry blast

Not to recall the tight grasp of hands
That told what hope could not speak
Or the long last kiss that gave "Farewell
And brooded it on the cheek

Not to tell of a weary, wasting pain,
The wish for a well loved face,
The useless longing to fill once more
The heart a cold vacant place

The smile o'er the love that passed away,
The cry of woe's keen smart,
That echoed unanswered and unheard,
Through the chambers of the heart

But to tell of bygones forgotten,
And bid thee pardon the past,
And take from the hand I offer
Peace and friendship at the last.

It will look at you gently and kindly,
And bid you be happy again,
And tell you to bury the wrecked years
Of our passion and our pain

It will tell that though life may be weary,
There are bright days for us still
If we live with a true and honest heart,
And a firm and an upright will

And through the dim coming future,
As the great years roll along,
It will whisper some sweet words of comfort,
And sing you a cheering song

It will ask you to look far onward,
To the land where spirits meet,
To the calm for the weary heartache,
And the rest for weary feet

Then take care of my little picture,
And do not cast it away,
'Tis the face you used to look at
And love in a bygone day

Miscellaneous Paragraphs.

A contractor has offered to raise the Monitor, sunk off Hatteras, for the sum of $75,000.

The Houston, Texas, Telegraph announces the hanging of twenty six "Abolitionists" in Gainesville,

Col. Ellet, who commanded the ram Queen of the West, which so gallantly ran the rebel batteries at Vicksburg, is only nineteen years old.

A kind-hearted creature, a widow lady sitting by a cheerful fire in a meditative mood, shortly after her husband's death, sighed out: "Poor fellow, how he did like a good fire I hope he has gone where they keep good fires."

Prentice says, that at various places the rebels have had blocks of wood painted to resemble cannon, and we, not behind them in stratagem, have quite as often had blockheads dressed up and titled to resemble Generals.

The Friends, or Quakers, in New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware, have memorialized Congress, asking exemption from the draft and the procurement of substitutes, and from the fines which they deem a penalty imposed for exercising "the right of conscience against the shedding of blood."

In Washington the conviction of a thief or pick-pocket having been found almost an impossibility under the law, the provost guard append labels bearing the words "thief" or "pick-pocket" to the backs of the offenders, and cause them to parade the principal streets.

The clock on St. Paul's, London, is a big thing. The pendulum is four feet long, and the weight at the end of it is one hundred pounds; the dial on the outside is regulated by a smaller one; the length of the minute hand on the exterior dial is eight feet and 75 pounds weight.

"What do you think of that," said one young man to another as they left the City Hall after listening to Wendell Phillips' lecture. "I think he is a fine orator but a d—d fool," was the emphatic reply Perhaps the young man was right, but then the folly of one generation has frequently proved to be the wisdom of the next.

At the time Mr. Peale was exhibiting his picture of the Court of Death, in Boston, he sent the Rev. Mr. Osgood a ticket, on which was inscribed. "Admit the bearer to the Court of Death." The old gentleman never having heard of the picture, was utterly confounded. "I expected to go before long," said he, "but I was not prepared for so abrupt a summons."

A CHILD'S FAITH.—When the battle of Fredericksburg was in progress a little boy asked his mother to kneel down with him and a younger brother to pray for the safety of our soldiers. When they arose he remarked to his mother that perhaps their prayer had turned a bullet from the head of Adjutant Dodge, an intimate friend of the family. A day or so afterward a dispatch was received by the friends of officer Dodge in that city stating that he had been killed in the engagement. The little supplicant received this intelligence with a sad countenance, but said nothing. On the following day, however, another dispatch was received, conveying the information that Adjutant Dodge was not killed, but that he had been thrown to the ground in an insensible condition by a ball having struck an intervening object which saved his life He had then entirely recovered from the injury, however, and was well Upon subsequent inquiry, it was found that the prayer and the officer's perilous moment occured at exactly the same hour. When the little friend of the Adjutant heard of the latter's safety, he exclaimed in ecstacy of joy, "I know it, mother; I knew it, I told you so!"

SHARP PRACTICE.—Some time during the last year, a young sprig of the law was admitted to the New York bar. His father, a prudent old codger, gave him a hundred dollars to purchase a library of books, and told him that was all he could do for him at that time, but that by prudence, industry, and immediate enforcement of payment of all sums of money that might be due him, he had no doubt he might get along A few days after the old man dropped into John's office, and borrowed fifteen dollars of the money he had given him, promising to pay by twelve o'clock the next day. "All right, dad," said John, "give me your memorandum" The next day, at twelve, pa did not appear, and John immediately served a writ upon him and put a bailiff in his house, just as the old man was sitting down to dinner. That is what we call an instance of sharp practice

WALTZING.—A good story is told of Major Roper, Chief Commissary in a division of Rosecrans' army. The Major is very fond of dancing, and enjoys female society A few evenings since a dance was given, and the Major was among those invited Wishing to waltz, he craved an introduction to a very pretty country girl, whom he had been informed was a fine waltzer. After the usual formalities, the Major requested her hand for the next waltz. Judge of his horror when she begged to be excused, as she said. "It always makes me puke!"

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all his profits or income exceeding $600 from any source whatever A proviso is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National State and Corporation taxes paid, Rents Drayage &c necessarily expended in business but no farmer merchant mechanic or capitalist has a right to deduct his own labor or as much capital from his income

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st 1863 that is on the income of December 31st 1862 everybody shall make up a statement of their income gains or profits for the year And as many sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks Insurance Stock Savings Banks interest, &c (they having already paid the income tax) are not again taxed It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no dispute with the Assessor

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends

For Example:

A man in business must make up the net profits of his business for the year and pay the tax on the amount less $600

A man may outside of his business spend all and even more than his profits in the business nevertheless he must pay tax on all net business profits over and the $600 And so with a salary all over $600 must be taxed though personal or family expenses consume it all

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May, 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863 And any sums due and unpaid on thirty days after the 30th June as a result and for ten days after demand by the Collector five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened up a multitude of new batteries, through the flood gates of Ruin in the shape of poor Whiskey, which is compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics Stomachics and Bitters

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in pint bottles and in bottled kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American people, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev J Newton Brown D D Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their high claims and effects I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation. In the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining I, therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them J NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1863

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheap whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has existed, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold hundreds to die the death of the drunkard By the use of the system is kept in a belly under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result of it is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt Get One Bottle of Hoofland's German Bitters and pure add The Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price Than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS!

We call the attention of all having relatives or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLANDS German Bitters will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life In the Southern Hospitals almost daily in the newspapers on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility Every one of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters If the suffering from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following cases well and well author ited cases from one of the nation's heroes, whose life to us has become a treasure, has been saved by the Bitters "

PHILADELPHIA August 23, 1862

Mr. Jones of Evans—Well gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life There is no mistake in this. It was vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in December last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June since that time I have been about as low as it could be and still retain a spark of vitality For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was sure to be immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach Life could not last under these circumstances and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully to restore me from the grasp of the dread Archer frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital Mr Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now, thank God for it, getting better Although I have taken but five bottles I have gained ten pounds and I feel sanguine of being restored to my family wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months, for gentlemen I am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity of Mount Royal To your invaluable Bitters I owe the continuity of life which has taken the place of vague fears to you Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade Mr Malone restored to life
